This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

THE Manuscripts described in the following Catalogue have been added to the Codrington Library, in All Souls College, at various periods. At the time when Dr. Bernard compiled his laborious Catalogue[a] of MSS., as they then existed in the different libraries in England and Ireland, in All Souls College there were found only fifty volumes; since that period, however, their number has increased to a very considerable extent; and the reader will find in the following pages a description of nearly three hundred books, embracing more than three hundred and twenty volumes, in which is contained much of interest and of importance.

Amongst those that deserve more particular notice may be mentioned, as connected with Biblical criticism, the several books[b] of the New Testament, with continual glosses, of the twelfth, thirteenth and fourteenth centuries, a curious volume, containing a French translation of the New Testament, illustrated with short glosses interspersed, of the beginning of the fifteenth century[c]; commentaries on the Scriptures, by Hugo de S. Victore[d], Rabanus Maurus, Thomas Aquinas, and Hugo Viennensis[e], or de S. Caro; to which we may also add, the Registrum Epistolarum of Gregory the Great, the Liber Symbolorum of John Capgrave, and a copy of the Scintillarium, by Defensor [f].

Of Historical works the collection possesses the Ecclesiastical Histories of Eusebius [g], translated by Rufinus, of the twelfth century, and of Beda. The works of Isidore, Rupert and Amalarius [h], abridged by Malmsbury, de Ecclesiasticis Officiis, deserve also to be noticed.

It is however in the materials for the history of our own country, as well early as of a more recent period, that this library is more particularly remarkable. To this class belongs a very fine copy of the works of William of Malmsbury, De gestis regum et Pontificum Angliæ [i], written probably before the year 1200; a second copy of the De gestis regum; as also a MS. of the Historia Novella [k], of the fourteenth century, by the same author; the histories of Hoveden [l], of the twelfth, of Geoffrey of Monmouth, and of Matthew of Westminster [m], of the fourteenth centuries are also to be mentioned; to which we may add, a French translation of that part of Langtoft's Chronicle [n] relating to the border wars of the first Edward; the life of Henry the Fifth, by Elmham; and a valuable collection of Ecclesiastical Constitutions, by Cardinal Otto, Peckham and other archbishops of Canterbury [o].

To the above-mentioned materials, very important additions were made at the close of the last century by the bequest of Luttrell Wynne, D.C.L., formerly fellow of All Souls, of more than one hundred volumes of Parliamentary Journals, State and other papers, the collections of Narcissus Luttrell, Esq. and Owen Wynne, D.C.L., secretary to Sir Leoline Jenkins, whilst Ambassador at the Hague and Cologne, and Secretary of State, in the reign of Charles the Second.

[f] Codd. xvii. xviii. xix. [g] Cod. xlvi. [h] Cod. xxviii. [i] Codd. xxxiii. xxxiv. The former of these has been collated by Mr. Hardy, for his edition of this work lately published. [k] Cod. xxxv. [l] Codd. xxxvi. xxxix. [m] Cod. xxxvii. [n] Cod. xxxix. A similar translation has, since the description of this MS. went to press, been printed in one of the volumes published by the Camden Society, edited by T. Wright, Esq. M.A. [o] Codd. xxxviii. xlii. Wilkins has made much use of this volume in his Concilia.

Of these the reader may be disappointed that he does not find a more precise and detailed account in the present Catalogue, but the Editor hopes that enough has been said for all general purposes, (especially since it is to be remembered that many of them are only drafts, the originals of which are now deposited in the State Paper Office,) whilst to describe each particular article would have far exceeded the limits allowed to the present compilation.

The Collection is also rich in works on Canon and Civil Law[p]; containing copies of the Decretals of Boniface, the Digest of Justinian, with the Commentaries of Azzo, Accursius, Zabarella, and others.

Of Medical works, we have translations from Galen, Hippocrates, Isaacus Judæus, Avicenna and Serapion; as also a MS. of the Laurea Medicina of Gilbertus Anglicus[q].

There are some other MSS. not belonging to either of the preceding classes, which still it would be an injustice to the Collection to pass over; the Works of Virgil[r] of the thirteenth, and the Tragedies of Seneca of the fifteenth centuries; a valuable volume of the poetical works of John Gower[s]; two histories of Venetian affairs[t], in Italian; a very interesting collection of relations by Venetian ambassadors; and the life of Dante by Boccaccio. To which may be added a curious volume by Humphrey Dyson, containing a list of books published in the time of Henry VIII.[u] and succeeding reigns, with their prices attached; as also two other MSS. in which are the kalendar and rules of two London Companies, the Scholars namely of Cheapside, and the White Bakers.[x]

It remains but to say a few words on the present Catalogue. In its compilation, care has been taken to give, as nearly as may be, the date of the MS., to preserve the names of former possessors of particular volumes, and to supply to anonymous or pseudonymous treatises the name of the original writer. If the Editor has not always been successful in this part of his labour, the difficulty of which will be readily appreciated, he feels that the want of success cannot be attributed to any want of attention on his own part.

He has only to add his best thanks to the Rev. Lewis Sneyd, Warden, and the Fellows of All Souls College, to whose liberality the public are indebted for the present Work, for the uniform kindness and assistance afforded him whilst passing it through the press.
